

PRESIDENT WILSON SIGNS DEMOCRATIC TARIFF BILL

EXECUTIVE PUTS INTO OPERATION FIRST DEMOCRATIC TARIFF REVISION SINCE '94

After Completing Signature the President In Extremoporeous Speech Declares That Journey of Legislative Accomplishment Is Only Half Completed and Urges Colleagues to Finish Second Step, That of Currency Reform.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Surrounded by the leaders of a united Democracy, President Wilson signed the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill at 9:09 o'clock tonight at the white house.

Simultaneously telegrams were sent to customs collectors throughout the country by the treasury department putting into actual operation the first Democratic tariff revision since 1894.

A happy group of legislators, members of the cabinet and friends encircled the president as he smilingly sat down, slowly affixed his signature with two gold pens. He presented to Representative Underwood the pen that had written the word "Woodrow" and the one which had completed his name, to Senator Simmons, both of whom bowed their appreciation. In impressive silence the president declared in easy tone an extemporaneous speech that brought prolonged applause.

The president declared that the journey of legislative accomplishment had only been partly completed; that a great service had been done for the rank and file of the country but that the second step in the emancipation of business was currency reform. He earnestly called upon his colleagues to go "the rest of the journey" with fresh impulse.

Difficult to Express Feeling.

"Gentlemen, I feel a very peculiar pleasure," the president said, "in what I have just done by way of taking part in the completion of a great piece of business. It is a pleasure which is very hard to express in words which are adequate to express the feeling; because the feeling that I have is that we have done the rank and file of the people of this country a great service. It is hard to speak of these things without seeming to go off into campaign eloquence but that is not my feeling. It is one very profound, a feeling of profound gratitude that working with the splendid men who have carried this thing through with studios attention and doing justice all round, I should have had part in serving the people of this country as we have been striving to serve them, ever since I can remember.

"I have had the accomplishment of something like this at heart ever since I was a boy and I know men standing around me who can say the same thing—who have been waiting to see the things done which it was necessary to do in order that there might be justice in the United States. And so it is a solemn moment, that brings such a business to a conclusion and I hope it will not be thought to be demanding too much of myself or of my colleagues when I say that this, great as it is, is the accomplishment of only half the journey. He have set the business of this country free from those conditions which have made monopoly not only possible, but in a sense easy and natural. But there is no use taking away the conditions of monopoly if we do not take away also the power to create monopoly and that is a financial, rather than a merely commercial and economic power.

"The power to control and guide and direct the credits of the country is the power to say who shall and who shall not build up the industries of the country in which direction they shall be built and in which direction they shall not be built. We are now about to take the second step which will be the final step in setting the business of this country free. That is what we shall do in the currency bill, which the house has already passed and which I have the utmost confidence the senate will pass much sooner than some pessimistic individuals believe. Because the question now that this piece of work is done, will arise all over the country, 'for what do we wait? Why should we wait to crown ourselves with consummate honor? Are we so self-denying that we do not wish to complete our success?'

"I was quoting the other day, to some of my colleagues in the senate those lines from Shakespeare's 'Henry V' which have always appealed to me, 'If it be a sin to covet honor, then am I most offending soul alive; and I am happy to say that I do not covet it for myself alone. I covet it with equal ardor for men who are associated with me and the honor is going to come from them. I am their associate. I can only complete the work which they do. I can only counsel when they ask for my counsel. I can come in only when the last stages of the business are reached and I covet this honor for them quite as much as I covet it for myself; and I covet it for the great party of which I am a member, because that party is not honorable unless it redeems its name and serves the people of the United States.

"So I feel tonight like a man who is lodging happily in the inn which lies half way along the journey and in the morning with a fresh impulse we shall go the rest of the journey and sleep at the journey's end like men with a quiet conscience knowing that we have served our fellow men and have thereby tried to serve God."

Guests Crowd About Desks.

It was an unusual spectacle which attended the completion of a legislative reform that had been seven months in congress and embraced a tariff revision of a most far-reaching character. Happy and jubilant, the invited guests came to the executive offices. They chatted and jested with the president in an ante-room while waiting for the full group to appear. When the members of the senate finance committee and house ways and means committee finally arrived, Vice-president Marshall was ushered into the president's office followed by Speaker Clark, Representative Underwood and members of the legislative reform committee and their friends. No photographers were admitted as the president regarded the occasion as too solemn to be disturbed by flash-light apparatus. The guests crowded about the president's desk over which an electric light threw a bright glow.

"I chose 9 o'clock," the president explained, "on the advice of the attorney general in order that the bill might be signed after business transactions everywhere, including San Francisco, had closed for the day. I will not say anything about the bill," he added, with a smile, "until I have signed it. I don't want it to get away from me."

Bill Signed at Exactly 9:10.

Promptly at 9:09 the president began writing and at 9:10 p. m. he had written the words "approved 9:10 p. m., Oct. 3, 1913." Woodrow Wilson, on the one hundred and eleventh page paramount containing the tariff bill. The president arose and handed the pens to the men who had steered the measure successfully through the two houses of congress.

The president had not intended to make a long speech and had not even prepared a statement but was moved on the spur of the moment to express his gratification. The small but distinguished audience that heard the president's speech crowded about him afterwards with congratulations.

Leading figures of the Democratic party—Speaker Clark, Secretary Bryan, Representative Underwood—stood together sponsors with the president for the first big piece of legislation that had been accomplished in the Democratic program of reform. They gave the president their personal congratulations and reiterated promises of support.

"We'll be coming here again in a short time to see the currency bill signed," Secretary Bryan said. Secretary McAdoo spoke with equal confidence.

While the president was surrounded by members of his official family there was none happier than Joseph R. Wilson, younger brother of the chief executive, who came here from Baltimore tonight to witness the signing. Mrs. Wilson and daughters are still at Cornish, N. H., the summer capital. Besides the officials a large number of newspapermen crowded into the president's office. There was an informal reception for a few minutes and then the Underwood-Simmons tariff law was carried away to the department of state and deposited in the archives along with other historic pieces of legislation.

Anxious To Get Through.

The speed with which congress disposed of the tariff work on the tariff bill and the measure to the white house demonstrated the anxiety of the house and senate to get through with the burden that had held them in continuous session since April.

Clerks of the senate were at work throughout the morning correcting proof on the engrossed copy of the bill and making sure that it contained no errors or misplaced punctuation marks. The bill, accompanied by the conference report as agreed on by the senate last night, came into the house as soon as that body met. For over an hour the house debated as to what action it should take, some of the parliamentary experts arguing that no further action was necessary, while others insisted the house must recede from its compromise cotton futures tax. Speaker Clark finally adjourned the later contention and the house quickly voted the cotton tax out of the tariff bill. The last vote was reached at 10:23. At 10:25 the speaker had affixed his name to the completed bill and within ten minutes Chief Clerk Jerry South had carried it to the senate and it had been signed by Vice-president Marshall. Clerk of the senate then took charge of the bill and conveyed it to the white house. The relief of both houses at the end of their long fight was apparent. Scores of members of senate and house had left the city yesterday and there was less than a quorum present in the house when final action was taken on the bill. Only extraordinary efforts of senate leaders kept enough senators in town to enable that body to work today on the urgent deficiency appropriation bill. Many members left Washington tonight, although both houses of congress will remain constructively in session.

To Take Up Cotton Tax Later.

The final steps taken by the house today to complete the tariff bill did not involve the rates or principles of that bill. Republicans and Democrats concurred in the action of receding from the cotton futures tax agreeing that no questions of parliamentary procedure should be left open to future attack in the courts.

It is generally understood that a determined effort will be made soon as the new congress convenes for the regular session in December, if not before that time to take up cotton futures tax legislation and to endeavor to pass a separate bill to regulate cotton exchange trading and to lay a heavy tax on that branch of cotton trading which members of the house and senate characterize as "gambling."

Germany will be the first nation to take advantage of that section of new tariff act which provides for the negotiation of reciprocity arrangements embodying mutual concessions in customs taxes. Already the initial steps have been taken to secure such an arrangement in anticipation of the signing of the bill by the president tonight. The chancellor of the German embassy, acting in the absence of Ambassador Bernstorff has been in communication with the state department and it is expected that a rough outline draft of such an arrangement as is referred to in that section soon will be ready for consideration. As it emerged from conference this section no longer contains the retaliatory provisions inserted in the senate and is now nothing more than an authorization to the executive to negotiate trade agreements with foreign nations where-in mutual concessions are made looking toward freer trade relations and further reciprocal expansion of trade and commerce.

Far Reaching Revision.

President Wilson's signing of the Underwood-Simmons bill at 9 o'clock tonight brings into effect one of the most far-reaching revisions of tariff rates and revenue laws enacted for many years.

A new income tax, applying directly to the incomes of citizens; the abolition of all tariff on scores of items of immense importance to American industry and American consumers and a heavy reduction of tariff rates on most of the articles in general use in this country are its chief features.

While certain portions of the new law do not take effect at once, most of its provisions and almost all the direct tariff reductions, do.

At every port Collectors of Customs, Appraisers of Merchandise and hundreds of other employees of the Treasury Department will plunge at once into the task of collecting the nation's revenue on a new basis and with hundreds of new classifications and new provisions of law to complicate their activities.

The federal government has been spending nearly a billion dollars a year and the new tariff law will raise less than one-third of that sum. Recent estimates by tariff experts in congress predict that the rates will take $248,000,000 a year; and that the income tax will raise $122,000,000. The remainder of the Government's great income is made up principally of internal revenue taxes and postal receipts.

The Income Tax.

The income tax probably will bring the new tariff law most forcibly to the attention of citizens. President Wilson and Democratic leaders in congress believe however, that the reduction of duties on clothing, foodstuffs and other necessities of life, and the complete removal of the duty from many like articles, will eventually bring a reduction in the "cost of living" without materially affecting business prosperity.

A brief summary of the new tariff law as prepared for the senate follows:

HUMPHRIES WARNS "SASSY" DEFENDANTS

JUDGE DECLARES HIS POWER GREAT
...IS HIGHER THAN GOVERNOR"

Begins Day in Belligerent Mood But After Talk With Representative of Other Judges He Dispenses Pardons and Remissions to All Comers.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 3.—Superior Judge John E. Humphries, who began the day in belligerent mood with his docket full of contempt of court cases against Socialists and opened the proceedings by denunciation of his brother judges who he asserted had been plotting against him, adjourned court late today after dispensing pardons and remissions to all comers. His change of attitude came after a consultation with a representative of eight other superior judges.

The most remarkable feature of the day in court was the discharge of Dr. Herman F. Titus, Kate Sadler and Millard Price, the citation of whom to answer contempt charges because of speeches they made in city hall park July 24th led to the "resolutions of defiance," whose signers have been on trial and a number of whom are in jail.

Until the middle of the afternoon Judge Humphries continued to hear the cases of the fifty-five signers of the resolutions of defiance making frequent addresses to the crowd packed tight in the stuffy little court room. In the morning the penalties imposed were severe, in the afternoon mild. The court frequently warned the defendants not to be sassy. Those who were "sassy" fared ill.

After the "defiant" persons had been disposed of the case of Dr. Titus on the charge of violating the anti-street speaking injunction was called. The judge delivered a long address saying it had wrung his heart to be obliged to send so many of his old friends to jail but declaring he must enforce the law.

The judge dwelt upon the great power he wielded, saying he had but to close his hand to put his hearers in jail and to open it to let them out. He exclaimed:

"I hold the keys. I have great power. I am higher than the governor. I can put you in jail and I can pardon you."

Then the judge discharged Dr. Titus to the latter's intense astonishment. So was Millard Price.

Kate Sadler, a street speaker, was brought from the county jail where she had been confined for interrupting the court proceedings yesterday. The judge questioned her. She said that instead of assailing him in her speeches she praised him—an object lesson of the need of recall of judges. Her $100 fine was reduced to $10.

"I'll not pay it," she shouted. "Don't get sassy," said the judge, adding:

"The fine is remitted anyhow." Waving his hand to the crowd the judge said:

"You saw how easy it was for me to let Kate go."

At the close of court tonight the principals in the Socialist contempt cases were free and more than a score of persons were in jail in default of payment of fines varying from $5 to $200 for "talking back to the court."

Three of the latter had been sentenced to six months each in prison. Five women are in jail tonight for non-payment of $100 fines.

The other eight judges would not give out details of their meeting except that it had been agreed that Judge Humphries' branch of the superior court be so-ordinate with their own and they could not take any action to restrain it. The opinion of the judges was that relief must come from the supreme court which has already issued two restraining orders against Judge Humphries and will pass upon appeals from sentences imposed yesterday and today.

PACIFIC COAST STEAMER WRECKED; PASSENGERS SAVED

Wireless Saves All Passengers—Steamer Dolphin Rushes to the Spokane's Assistance in Answer to "S. O. S." Calls.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 3.—Wireless stations here and at Corvallis have picked up messages reporting that the steamer Spokane of the Pacific Coast Steamship company has been wrecked off Cape Lazo, B. C. The steamer Dolphin is rushing to the Spokane's assistance in answer to "S. O. S." calls. A message from the Spokane said:

"Sinking fast, rush help." The steamer LaTouche is taking off passengers. The Spokane is a passenger vessel plying between Portland and north coast points.

Passengers Being Picked Up. Seattle, Wash., Oct. 3.—The passengers and crew of the steamer Spokane took to the life boats and are being picked up by the steamship LaTouche. The steamer Akki is standing by. It is believed there has been no loss of life.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

College Springs, Ia., Oct. 3.—Al Smith of College Springs was arrested today on a charge of killing Ole Herndon at Eureka Springs, Ark., Sept. 15, 1911. Smith is said to have been arrested at the time but escaped from the officers and has been at liberty ever since. He has a wife and five children living here.

FIGHT TO SAVE THE POSITIONS OF FOUR REMAINING JUDGES

May Be Legislated from Office by Urgent Deficient
Appropriation Bill

PREVENTS FINAL ACTION

Final Action on Bill in Senate Is Prevented by Parliamentary
Maneuvers of Sen. Hoke Smith

WILL CONTINUE FIGHT TODAY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—A fight to save the positions of the four remaining judges of the United States commerce court, who would be legislated out of office by the urgent deficiency appropriation bill as it passed the house, held the senate in a continuous session which began shortly after noon today and ran until near midnight tonight. Twice the friends of the commerce court judges succeeded in carrying amendments that would keep them in office as additional circuit judges but final action was prevented by parliamentary maneuvers engineered by Senator Hoke Smith.

The senate upheld the action of the house in legislating the commerce court out of existence and fixing the date for its termination as December 31st, but did not agree with the action of the senate appropriation committee in taking away from the commerce court judges their status as United States circuit judges.

After a long fight in the committee of the whole, an amendment prepared by Senator Nelson (Republican) and Senator Walsh (Democrat) was adopted, providing that the present commerce court judges should continue in office as additional circuit judges until abolishing their positions whenever the present occupants resign or retire.

Hard To Secure Quorum.

Drastic measures were adopted by the leaders to secure a quorum, the sergeant at arms being instructed to arrest absent members wherever they might be found. Senators who went to the white house to witness the signing of the tariff bill were brought back hurriedly to keep a quorum but it was found almost impossible to maintain sufficient membership to do business.

Senator Overman in charge of the appropriation bill and Senator Kern, the Democratic leader, declined to permit adjournment fearing that other members would leave the city and that it would be impossible to secure action on the appropriation bill for many days to come.

In the confusion many important amendments were added to the bill by affirmative votes of the senate.

The senate, still without a quorum finally adjourned at 11:33 o'clock.

The commerce court fight will be taken up again tomorrow.

Will Attempt to Get Position.

An attempt to determine definitely the exact position of the senate banking and currency bill will be made tomorrow. Senators Owen, Pomerene, Shafroth and Hollis, supporters of the administration on the administration on the committee want to get a definite idea from their colleagues as to what are the chief obstacles to a final agreement and to place a limit on the hearings which now threaten to run for weeks. A wide variance of opinion among both Democrats and Republicans has appeared in the course of extended hearings. It appears practically certain that at present it would be extremely difficult to secure an agreement among a majority of the committee to any particular form of currency reform satisfactory to the administration. Senators Reed, O'Gorman and Hitchcock and the Republican members of the committee have made it apparent that they favor continuing hearings until all available information has been laid before the committee. The house rules committee today refused to report a resolution authorizing the banking and currency committee to take a thirty day trip through the country to investigate the subject of rural credits and agriculture banks. The committee decided such a trip should be postponed pending the report of the American commission which investigated rural credits abroad.

PHYSICIAN AND AUTHOR COMMITTS SUICIDE

Domestic and Financial Troubles Cause Dr. R. F. Stone to Take His Own Life.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 3.—Dr. Richard F. Stone, physician and author, was found dead in his office here today from asphyxiation and the police say he committed suicide. The room was filled with gas from an open jet and one burner of a hot plate was lighted when neighbors broke into the office. The police also say Dr. Stone planned an explosion and fire to cover up his suicide. He is said to have had domestic and financial troubles recently.

HASTY MARRIAGE FRUSTRATES PLAN

INVESTIGATION OF RANCHER'S
"DEATH" RESULTS IN DISCOVERY

Montana Ranch Owner Is Accused of Placing Dead Body of Another Man In His House, Firing House and Disappearing to Swindle Insurance Company.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Charged with conspiracy, arson and the robbery of a grave, Arthur S. Hughes, a ranch owner of Forsythe, Mont., was arrested here this afternoon at the request of Sheriff Mosen of Rosebud County, Montana. Hughes is charged with having entered into a conspiracy with his wife and a man named Elliott, both of whom the police assert are under arrest in Montana, to collect $8,000 insurance on his life which he carried in the Montana Life Insurance company.

According to the complaint a man named Craig was killed in Forsythe about two and one-half months ago by a railroad train.

Hughes it is alleged, took Craig's body from the grave where it lay, carried it home, placed it in a bed chamber and then set the house on fire. The body, burned to a crisp and unrecognizable was found in the embers and Mrs. Hughes went into mourning for her husband. Hughes the complaint continues disappeared.

A few days later Mrs. Hughes married Elliott and put in a claim for the $8,000 insurance on Hughes life. Sheriff Mosen believed that the body found in the ruins was that of Hughes and soon afterwards arrested them both while he investigated the supposed death of Hughes. During this investigation it was learned Hughes was in New York and he was arrested here.

Mrs. Elliott Collapses.

Forsythe, Mont., Oct. 3.—When apprised of the arrest today in New York of her former husband, Arthur S. Hughes, on a charge of conspiracy to murder an insurance company by stealing a corpse from a grave, Mrs. Elliott collapsed here tonight. The grave that Hughes is alleged to have robbed was that of John Kirken who was killed here in a railroad accident. Besides a policy for $1,000 in the Montana Life Insurance company which remains unpaid, Hughes is reported to have carried policies in several fraternal insurance organizations.

ILLINOIS STATE FAIR OPENS WITH A LARGE ATTENDANCE

Monday Is First Big Day—Races and Many Special Features Will Be Staged.

Springfield, Oct. 3.—With exhibits valued at $3,000,000, the Illinois State fair opened today with a large attendance for the opening day. Next Monday is to be the first big day, however.

The race meet begins then and the special feature attractions will be staged.

Indications are that the political "roundup" next week will be the largest ever held in the state when a convention was not in session.

C. P. Young, who will make parachute leaps from an airship all next week, arrived tonight. He will perform twice daily. The Rev. Montgomery of Pittsburgh, Pa., will deliver a lecture at the fair grounds Sunday afternoon.

RESCUERS WORK HARD TO RELEASE ENTOMBED MINER

Miners Strike Hard Body of Coal and Are Yet Six or Eight Feet Away From Imprisoned Man.

Centralia, Pa., Oct. 3.—Cheerful in the face of disappointment because he was not rescued today as expected from the gloomy cell one hundred feet below the surface, where he has been entombed, for more than seven days, Joseph Trosky called through his food tube to rescuers tonight that he was satisfied everything possible was being done to get him out and that he was content to spend another night behind the wall of coal. The rescuers struck a partially hard body of coal today and were still six or eight feet away from the imprisoned miner at a late hour tonight.

OCCUPY PIEDRAS NEGRAS.

Piedras Negras, Mex., Oct. 3.—The constitutionalists again occupied Piedras Negras, once their provisional capital with the return from the front today of 300 troops under Col. Herrera.

San Francisco	56 58 54
Winnipeg	56 64 42

St. Louis, Oct. 3.—Leonard A. Holdenire, a wall paper merchant, was indicted this afternoon on a charge of attempting to bribe Henry Klug, a member of the lower house of the municipal assembly to vote to override Mayor Kiel's veto of a tax increase bill. Holdenire was released on $1,000 bond.

It was charged that on May 22 Holdenire offered Mr. Klug $800 in bills shortly before the meeting of the house of delegates at which an attempt was to be made to pass the bill over the veto. The attempt failed by three votes. Klug voted to sustain the mayor.

The grand jurors were unable to determine the source of the $800 bribe money.

The ten cent increase in the tax rate was proposed in order to raise funds with which to complete the east wagon approach to the Municipal bridge, which now has no approaches on the Illinois side. While the tax increase bill was pending, City Comptroller Player issued a statement scoring the attorney for an interurban traction that has a franchise over the municipal bridge for activity in behalf of the ten cent bridge tax on the ground that if it failed of adoption the time would be too short to provide for a smaller increase necessary to finance needed city improvements.

Lower Increase Fails.

The lower increase as desired by the comptroller failed of adoption and the city now is operating under last year's rate.

This necessitated the curtailment of many expenditures that had been desired by heads of departments. Opposition to the completion of the wagon approach to the bridge was voiced on the ground that the bridge was intended primarily for a steam railroad highway, that to complete the approach would give the interurban company access to the city under its present franchise and at the same time divert public attention from the desirability of completing the steam railroad approach.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 3.—A quarantine against the shipment into California of peaches from Missouri which has existed for two years was dissolved today by the state horticultural commission.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Joe Jeannette outpointed Samuel Langford in a ten-round bout at Madison Square garden tonight. The two colored heavyweights weighed: Jeannette, 195 and Langford 199 pounds.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Benny Allen of Kansas City won the world's pocket billiard championship tonight defeating Alfred DeOro of Cuba, the title holder for several years, by a total score in the three nights' play of 690 to 516.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 3.—T. J. McLine, 35, an employee at the Springfield Paving Brick company's plant today fell into a vat of molten slag, and was buried alive. He died a few moments after being extricated by fellow employees.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 3.—Fire tonight destroyed the union station, one of St. Paul's oldest landmarks and for a time threatened to cause a serious conflagration in the wholesale district. The loss is variously estimated at from $100,000 to $250,000.

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 4.—Thirty persons are believed to have been drowned through the sinking of the auxiliary tug Guarany today by the Steamer Borborema of the Lloyd-Braziliano Line.

GALESBURG, Ill., Oct. 3.—One hundred and forty thousand dollars for a Y. M. C. A. building has been raised here in the past seven days ending last mid-night. A gift of $35,000 from C. W. Williams completed the sum tonight. Fifty-five thousand dollars was subscribed today.

"BLOOD IS THICKER THAN WATER"

Without good red blood a man has a weak heart and poor nerves. Thinness of the blood, or anemia, is common in young folks as well as old. Especially is it the case with those who work in filthy ventilated factories—or those who are shut up indoors in winter time with a coal stove turning up the oxygen or emitting carbonic (oxide) gas. This blood, or blood which lacks the red blood corpuscles, in anemic people may have been caused by lack of good fresh air breathed into lungs, or by poor digestion or dyspepsia. Sometimes people suffer intense pain over the heart which is not heart disease at all, but caused by indigestion. Whatever the cause, there's just one remedy that you can turn to—knowing that it has given satisfaction for over 40 years.

LAST SAD RITES FOR "UNCLE" ABE SEYMOUR

Impressive Funeral Services Held for Honored Citizen of Franklin Community—Rev. John Kettle Gives Discourse.

A last tribute of respect was paid to "Uncle" Abe Seymour Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Christian church at Franklin. It was one of the largest attended funerals in the community for sometime, many coming from a great distance, as Mr. Seymour was widely known and highly respected. The services were in charge of Rev. John Kettle, pastor of the Providence church, assisted by Rev. J. E. Tenney of the Christian church of Franklin, and Rev. Peter Kittel of the Methodist church.

Music was furnished by a choir consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Branson, Mrs. Oyer Wright, Mrs. Curtis Scott, Miss Marie Austin, Miss Ina Berryman and Elgin Olinger, with Miss Mae Boulware as organist. They sang "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me" and "In the Rotted Rock I'm Resting." Miss Berryman sang as a solo, "There's a Welcome for Me in Shadow Land."

Rev. John Kettle took for his text Job, 14-15. "Man dieth and wasteth away, yea, man giveth up the ghost where he is he?" The pastor said: "We have here a wail of sorrow and a deep searching question which has ever been wrung from the heart and lips of men, since first there were vacant seats and open graves and bereaved and empty hearts. Our text suggests three divisions, first, a change common to all; a belief common to all, and a question common to all. God constantly reminds us that we are but tenants on this earth and that our time is no of our own. Men have instinctive belief in a future existence. The Bible says plainly that there are three classes of people, the good and the bad; two ways, life and death, and two eternal homes, heaven and hell. These three are inseparably linked together. If we have the character, we are on the way and are daily reaching nearer home. Man is a free moral agent. God doesn't do his choosing for him. He can accept eternal life or he can reject it. He can choose the wrong or he can cleave to that which is good.

Rev. Mr. Kettle spoke impressively of the life of the deceased. He dwelt upon the work and worth of the pioneers of the country and that the people of today are reaping the benefits of their labor and sacrifices. We owe a debt of gratitude to the sturdy pioneer that we can never fill.

There were many beautiful flowers, of many designs and these were tenderly cared for by Misses Della Spire, Ethel Spire, May Spire and Carrie Spire.

At the grave, the Odd Fellows, who attended the funeral in a body, had charge of the services and burial was made in the Franklin cemetery. The bearers were Messrs. H. C. Tankford, A. M. Calhoun, William Hills, H. M. Tulpin, A. B. Daniels and Lafayette Clayton.

DESIGNATE HOLIDAYS FOR THE MERCHANTS.

Department of the Chamber of Commerce Holds Meeting—Banquet For Traveling Men Oct. 31.

A meeting of the retail merchants' department of the Chamber of Commerce was held Friday morning. Among the items of business transacted was the agreement on holidays for the year. Fall holidays, Christmas and Fourth of July, half holidays, New Year's, Thanksgiving, Decoration Day and Labor Day. It was the sense of the department, however, that this agreement need not necessarily be binding on all the merchants. The department also agreed to tender the traveling men of the city and community a banquet to be held Oct. 31. A committee will be appointed to arrange a program. The matter of giving a "Made in Jacksonville" show during the winter was discussed, to be held at the time of the poultry show and farmers' institute. No action was taken. The noon-day luncheon will be resumed and the department will be anxious to have any business man of the city offer suggestions which will be of a mutual benefit in these gatherings.

WILL OF W. H. ROWE.

The will of the late W. H. Rowe has been filed for probate in the office of County Clerk Boruff. The instrument was drawn April 15, 1913. Instrument was drawn April 15, 1913 with H. J. Rodgers and C. B. Graff as witnesses. The property is bequeathed to C. A. Rowe, only son of the deceased, and he is named executor. The executor is to pay yearly during her lifetime, the sum of $50 to Mrs. Martha B. Graves, an aunt of the testator. The executor was directed to pay to Frank W. Marsh $1,000, but a notation upon the will states that Mr. Marsh died April 15, 1913.

ported merchandise; old law 37 per cent; new law 27 per cent. Value of annual imports added to the free list $747,000,000.

Estimated revenue from all import rates; old law $235,000,000; new law $249,000,000.

Estimated revenue from corporation and income taxes; old law $37,000,000; new law $122,000,000. Altogether, consumers in the United States probably will receive from abroad free of all tariff, more than $1,000,000,000 worth of merchandise during the next year.

During 1912 the amount of "free imports" was more than $880,000,000, and when the tariff is entirely removed from wool, sugar, iron ore and cheap iron, and other important items, the total is expected to increase notably. Under the old law more than 55 per cent of all goods brought to the United States from all parts of the world paid no tariff, and that proportion will be increased by the new law.

The free wool provision of the new law takes effect December 1, 1913; the free sugar provision May 1, 1916.

Result of Long Work.

The new tariff law, passed four years after President Taft signed the existing Payne-Aldrich law, is the result of more than nine months work in Congress. Hearings were started January 6, by the House Ways and Means Committee. Chairman Underwood introduced the tariff bill April 7, immediately after President Wilson had convened the new Congress. It passed the House May 8 and the Senate September 9.

In the opinion of its makers, the Democratic leaders of Congress, the most important features of the new tariff are:

"A reduction of nearly one-half in the average tariff on foodstuffs and farm products.

The placing of raw wool on the free list, and a reduction of nearly two-thirds in their tariff on wollen clothing, especially of the cheaper grades.

A reduction of one-third (average) on cotton clothing.

Reduction of the sugar tariff and its ultimate abolishment in 1916.

A reduction of one third (average) in the tariff on earthenware and glassware.

Abolishment of all tariff on meats, fish, dairy products, flour, potatoes, coal, iron ore, lumber and many classes of farm and office machinery.

General tariff reduction on all important articles in general use.

Attack Low Rates.

Throughout the long fight over the bill, the Republican attack on the measure has been directed against those rates which the Republicans declared were so low as to threaten destruction to American industries, through the competition of foreign manufacturers. The Democratic supporters of the new law have insisted that except in those cases where public welfare demanded radical changes the tariff has been reduced only to a point where it will "stimulate competition" without turning American markets over to foreigners.

A great amount of work will fall upon the Treasury Department, it is expected, in working out the details of the new income tax and the methods of collecting the direct taxes from individual citizens of the United States. The tax upon corporations, now fixed at one per cent of their income, remains the same, and becomes part of the general income tax law. A staff of special deputies, collectors, and agents will be employed to organize and conduct the work of income tax collection.

ELKS ENJOY BURGEO.

Members of Jacksonville lodge No. 682, B. P. O. Elks, enjoyed a burgeo at W. B. Groves' northwest of the city Friday evening. The men met at the Elks club rooms and left the city in automobiles about 5:30 o'clock. There were about 150 members and friends present, including a number of Elks from Winchester and the Great Raymond, and they enjoyed an excellent burgeo supper prepared by their chef, Bert Muse. After supper a pleasant time was spent and they returned to the city early.

BIRTH RECORD.

Born, Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolter of Quincy at Passavant hospital, an eight-pound son, Edward Emil Wolter. Mrs. Wolter was formerly Miss Susan Wackerle.

INDIGESTION, GAS OR SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Time It!—"Pape's Diapiesin" Makes Your Upset, Bloating Stomach feel Fine in Five Minutes.

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that is what makes Pape's Diapiesin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and -ches; breath foul, tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember -the moment "Pape's Diapiesin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back.

It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world.—Adv.

Mr. Jacksonville Merchant:

DEAR SIR—A city is known by its 'electric signs' This is no figure of speech. A stranger flees the dark town as though it was a graveyard. For the same reason a bright town is like a joy ride.

Jacksonville is sitting up and "rubbing its eyes." Let's make it a real awaking. No use saying we can't. Little dinky towns are booming things strong. Electrical advertising has done for cities and towns what Jacksonville is waiting for. Advancement will come by the liberal use of ELECTRIC SIGNS.

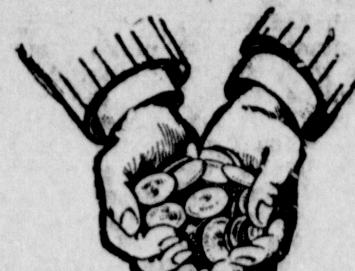

Phone us. We have a specialist on electric advertising with us for a few days.

SEEK TO ESTABLISHSANITARIUM HERE

Dr. Norbury and Dr. Dollear Have Several Sites Under Consideration—Will Locate in Jacksonville If Their Requirements Can Be Met.

Announcement was made Friday that Dr. E. P. Norbury and Dr. A. H. Dollear will have offices in the Abers National bank building and will share a waiting room with Dr. W. B. Young. Dr. Dollear will have office hours from 2 to 4 each afternoon and Dr. Norbury will have hours here several days each week. Their Springfield office will be temporarily at the Prince sanitarium.

It is entirely probable that the sanitarium Dr. Norbury and Dr. Dollear expect to establish will be in Jacksonville. The statement can be made with certainty that institution will be here of a suitable location can be found, at a reasonable price. Dr. Norbury said yesterday. "We have looked at three possible sites this afternoon and want to know about others. I have no hesitation to say that I prefer to locate here in Jacksonville for this city has the institutional spirit and atmosphere. We need at least ten acres of land and would prefer to have thirty or forty acres more, adjoining the property or not far away. We will consider property without improvements but would rather have it with improvements. It is just a question of finding suitable property here and at a reasonable price."

This seems to be a chance for really owners to offer their holdings though it must be admitted that there are not a great many properties which will meet the requirements as to location for a sanitarium. Sites to be acceptable must be accessible to sewerage and water.

SPECIAL FOR TODAY, GOOSEBERRY PIE, IDEAL BAKERY, EAST STATE STREET.NO WATER FOR SPRINKLING

As recent rains gave only temporary drouth relief, Commissioner Brennan has deemed it unwise to supply water to Mr. Maddox for sprinkling streets. Just now the Jacksonville Packing Co., the Jacksonville Railway and Light Co., the C. P. & St. L. shops and the state institutions are buying water from the city and so an unusual demand exists. In view of these conditions Mr. Brennan decided to take no chances of cutting the supply to the danger point.

Knoll's has an unusually attractive stock of furnishing goods.

TROUBLE WITH ARMATURE.

The lights in the fourth and second wards did not burn continuously Thursday night as was expected for after they had been turned on for about an hour and a half there was trouble with the armature newly placed on one of the dynamos at the city light plant. The repair work necessary was not completed until late Friday afternoon and Commissioner Brennan thought there would be no trouble last night.

"You can tell the people that the ten miles of roads between Jacksonville and Chapin are now the finest in the county," said A. L. French yesterday. "The roads have all been dragged with the exception of one-half mile and are now as smooth as a city boulevard." Mr. French might have added that dragging at the proper time would put all the roads of the county into a like good condition.

PHI ALPHA SOCIETY.

Phi Alpha Literary society held the second meeting of the year Friday night in Beecher hall. Essays were read by Gustafson, Edci and Manner and a declamation was given by Chester Berry. The question for debate, "Resolved that there should be a literary test for immigrants into the United States," was debated on the affirmative by Conn and Petrie and on the negative by Kimmel and Ray Berry. The negative won the decision.

Four new members were received into the society, bringing the total of new men taken in to date to seventeen. The new members are John Mitchell and Oran Nicholson of Pittsfield, Floyd Davis of White Hall and Mr. Easley of Cairo. The next meeting of the society will be Friday, October 10.

BRECKON & JENKINSON HAVE SUITS FOR THE MEN, THE YOUTHS AND THE BOYS.AT THE GRAND.

The Great Raymond entertained a large audience at the Grand Friday night and the closing number of the performance was one which brought forth the most hearty applause. Walter Huss and Hiram Johnson, of the Crawford Lumber company constructed a large wooden box on the stage and nailed the top on securely after Mr. Raymond had gotten into it. The men then roped the box and a number from the audience who were on the stage while the box was being marked it so that there was no danger of substitution. The box was then slid back under a canopy and in a few minutes, when Mr. Raymond pushed the box out, it was just as the men had finished it.

ROAD IN GOOD CONDITION.

The road from the end of the pavement to the Poor Farm is now in excellent condition as the result of being dragged. George Lewis, superintendent of the County Farm, did the work Thursday.

THE TEMPERATURES.

The temperatures for Friday, according to G. H. Hall, weather observer at Alexander, were: maximum 77, minimum 41.

Harmon's
DRY GOODS STORE

Jacksonville, Ill., October, 1913.

DEAR FRIENDS AND PATRONS:—

The Fall season is now upon us—with real winter "just around the corner." As the mercury drops from day to day, and the chilly winds blow, you are brought face to face with the urgency of procuring cold weather wearables. New dresses are to be bought—gloves, hosiery, underwear for the whole family, warm blankets—and the hundred and one other things that contribute to your comfort.

It is at just such a time that I desire to come into closer touch with the public and tell you in this personal sort of way of this store—its goods—its service.

As I look over the gigantic stocks that fill every shelf, showcase and counter and recall what a thorough search of the market has been made to accomplish this result—how fashion's latest whims were met—how carefully the dependability of every article purchased was investigated—and how bargain after bargain was driven—I feel at liberty to extend an invitation broadcast to every woman in Jacksonville's trade limits to bring her dry goods wants to this store, with full confidence that her every need can be satisfactorily filled.

Perhaps some of you who read this letter have never visited this store—and do not know that it is "the Store for Dress Goods and Silks." If so, we extend to you a special invitation to investigate our claim. Come in some day this week, look around, note the low prices on the many beautiful things you see displayed, and see if you do not discover as many others are doing daily, that this is a splendid place to trade.

You will find our sales force to be courteous and pleasant to deal with, thoroughly posted about fabrics and styles and a real help in selecting goods for your special requirement.

The styles in women's apparel this season are more attractive than ever—gorgeous effects are sought after and are developed chiefly from brocaded weaves. We are prepared to meet this demand to the perfect satisfaction of the most critical. Our dress fabric section is the wonder section of the whole store. It is kept right up to the minute in styles and down to bed-rock in prices.

Trusting that I may soon have the pleasure of meeting you in the store, I beg to remain,

Yours Respectfully,

E. B. HARMON.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Messrs. Warfield Brown, Charles Widmayer, Worthington Adams and Rollin Kiel gave a dance last night at the Peacock Inn, which was a most enjoyable affair, there being present some fifteen couples. Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. George O'neal acted as chaperons.

The "Auld Lang Syne Class," which consists of schoolmates who attended school at Franklin, was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Scott on South Main street. Among those present were Miss Belle Mansfield, Mrs. William Harney, Mrs. Ella Stewart, Mrs. Laura Roberts, Mrs. Pauline Wright of Franklin, Mrs. Harriet Clark, of Olathe, Kan.; Mrs. Ella Carlisle, Mrs. Mamie Van Winkle, Mrs. Dora E. Lowdermilk, Mrs. Alice Scott of Jacksonville. The house was prettily decorated in autumn foliage for the occasion and an elegant repast was served. It was a time for recalling old school days and it is needless to say that the annual occasion was greatly enjoyed. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Laura Roberts in Franklin Oct. 3, 1914.

The officers elected were:
President—Will Harney.
Secretary—Mrs. Ella Carlisle.

SIGMA PI SOCIETYHOLDS SECOND MEETING.

Sigma Pi Literary society held the second meeting of the year Friday evening in Beecher hall at Illinois college. Two men, Ernest Alford and Carl Lukeman, were received into active membership and a literary program was rendered as follows:

WORK OF CLINICS TO BE SUSPENDED BY LEAGUE

Anti-Tuberculosis Society Holds Important Meeting Last Night—Organization to Be Incorporated.

A meeting of the Morgan County Anti-Tuberculosis league was held last night in the office of Dr. A. L. Adams. The society voted to incorporate and the clinic work of the league was abolished until more funds could be secured. Among those present were L. O. Vaughn, president; Miss Louise Capos, secretary; Doctors Norris, Hardesty, Woltman, Young, Cole, Milligan, Mrs. J. Thompson Sharp, Paul Fritchey and Mrs. J. K. C. Pierson. A report was read showing that the league had a balance of $10.37. A motion was made and carried that the league be incorporated, as recommended by the State association. A charter will be secured at once. The State association recommends a board of thirty members. At present there are twenty on the local board. The other ten will be chosen from ten named by the Woman's club and ten named by the Morgan County Medical society.

The chair was empowered to appoint a committee of three to look toward the sale of Red Cross stamps. Dr. Hardesty and Dr. Cole in reporting for the clinic stated that during the past three months, the clinics had been attended by seventy-five and eighteen had been given treatment. Miss Guild, visiting nurse, had completed a summary of the third and fourth wards and part of the second ward. Dr. Cole made a report of his visit to northern tuberculosis hospitals and colonies. He stated that while they had spent more money than the local organization, he did not believe they proportionately had obtained any better results.

On account of the lack of funds the board voted to suspend the work of the clinics until a fund could be raised. A committee will be appointed to collect funds.

Paul Fritchey was present and spoke of the place which would be given the league in the coming Morgan county poultry show and farmers institute. This booth will be in charge of a committee appointed by the president, consisting of Dr. Hardesty, Dr. Young, Mrs. J. K. C. Pierson.

GIRL'S STATEMENT CLEARS OELRICHS OF CHARGE

Lucile Singleton Declares Her Injuries Were Caused by Glass From Wind Shield.

New York, Oct. 3.—Lucile Singleton changed her mind today about her charge of stabbing against Hermann Oelrichs, the millionaire, whose automobile met with accident while the two were riding in it Tuesday. She declared in an affidavit that her injuries were caused by points of glass of the wind-shield through which she was thrown. In substance the affidavit said Oelrichs and the girl had been drinking and that Oelrichs lost control of the automobile in which they were riding. It is expected the hearing set for next Tuesday charging Oelrichs with felonious assault will be dismissed.

A Coaxer For Recruits.

Nowadays the authorities do not advertise so alluringly for recruits as they did in the past. A notice issued in 1801 by British authorities calls on men to join the light dragoons, in which regiment, they are informed, "you will be mounted on the finest horses in the world, with superb clothing and the richest accoutrements; your pay and privileges are equal to 2 guineas a week; your society is courted; you are admired by the fair, which, combined with the chance of getting swished by a buxom widow or brushing with a rich belle, renders the situation truly enviable and desirable. Young men out of employment or otherwise uncomfortable, there is a tide in the affairs of men which, taken at the flood, leads to fortune. Nick it!"

Some Talkers.

A man once visited Niagara Falls, taking with him his wife and his wife's sister. Immediately on arriving and securing hotel quarters the party set out to see the wonderful sight, wifey and wifey's sister talking as they walked along on a million interesting subjects.

"Say, John," said wifey, turning to the old man after they had gone quite a distance, "aren't we getting near the falls?"

"Yes," was the prompt reply of John. "If you will stop talking a minute you will hear the thunder of the water quite plainly."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Worse Still.

Mother (to wriggling son across her knee)—I'll teach you to tie saucapans to dogs' tails.

Have You Seen the Capps Indian Blanket Novelty Coats in Our Windows and on Display Inside

These loose, warm, wooly, perfect fitting garments are the sensation of the season. Lovers of outdoor sports and pastimes say they are the most sensible fad ever started and that their popularity is certain to increase.

They follow the original designs of Capps genuine Indian blankets. Some of the patterns are quiet and subdued, others as "loud" (and as harmonious) as Sousa's brass band. You will be glad to see them. You will enjoy snuggling into their wonderful "comfortableness." Men's styles made in Norfolk style only. All have shawl collars and roomy patch pockets. Women's styles made in Norfolk and plain with sleeves and shoulder, slightly narrower than men's styles and cut in a little at the waist.

MOTHERS! IF CHILD'S

TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Bilious, Stomach Sour, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat, or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs." then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is often all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup company." Don't be fooled!—Adv.

ROOSEVELT'S FAREWELL TO PROGRESSIVES

FORMER PRESIDENT SAYS PARTY WILL ENTER NEXT NATIONAL CAMPAIGN.

Regards His Work of Last Eighteen Months as Culmination of What He Has Accomplished—Party's Nominees in Eastern States Are Lauded.

New York, Oct. 3.—On his return from his South American trip, Col. Roosevelt tonight told the Progressives gathered to honor him on the eve of his departure his best endeavors would be extended toward the upbuilding of the party. The party is solid, he declared, and he added that it was the firm determination of the rank and file as well as the leaders to preserve its political entity, its solidarity and integrity. Speaking of the work he had mapped out for himself on his return, Col. Roosevelt said that "We shall enter undaunted as a national party on another national campaign."

Wants Party Principles Realized.
The colonel said that he never would rest content until every single principle enunciated by the Progressive party is put into practical operation by the nation.

"It is emphatically a fight for our country," he declared. "I would continue to fight even if I stood entirely alone."
Col. Roosevelt began his speech by saying that he wanted to take this means of saying a word to all men and women of the Progressive party. All his life, he said, he had been engaged in work that culminated in the last eighteen months, and of all his political life, it was the last eighteen months to which he looked back with the most satisfaction. This was his compliment to the men and women who have worked with him in the organization and first campaign of the party, which termed a movement for "social and industrial justice to be achieved in a spirit of brotherly goodwill and of the broadest social consciousness."

Says Progressives Kept Faith.
"I believe that all of us who have worked in this movement have gained thereby the inestimable advantage of a finer and higher outlook on life," he continued.

"Moreover, friends, we have kept the faith wherever, and to the extent that, power has been given us. We have striven to make good every promise of the covenant with the people which our platform represents. There is no principle to which we have not striven to live up to in spirit and in letter alike. We have so driven our principles home that each of the old parties in place after place has been obliged to pay at least lip loyalty to them."

The Fight Just Begun.
Col. Roosevelt predicted that the Progressive party would never go back, and he declared: "I warn our opponents that the fight has only just begun. Whatever may be the future, of one thing the disciples of an easy opportunism may rest assured—I will never abandon the principles to which we Progressives have pledged ourselves, and I will never abandon the men and women who drew around me to battle for these principles. They and I stand with our faces toward the morning; we will never be sundered from one another; and we will never yield the ground we have taken or flinch from the fight to which we are pledged."

Lauds Party Candidates.
Col. Roosevelt in the course of his address lauded the candidates of his party in various states, mentioning Judge Learned Hand and Judge Seabury, nominees for chief judge and associate judge of the court of appeals in New York; Everett Colby, for governor in New Jersey; Charles Sumner Bird for governor of Massachusetts for municipal offices in New York and Louisiana, as well as the Progressive party candidates for congress in Maryland, West Virginia and elsewhere.

"The men I have named, Hand, Seabury, Colby, Bird," said Col. Roosevelt, "have embodied in their deeds the words by which in our declarations we have pledged them to the service of the people as a whole. We turn to their past as the warrant for asking the people of the three great states to trust their future; and the organizations which stand behind them have no other purpose than to hold up their hands in the struggle for clean government and social fair play."

HYOMEI RELIEVES IN FIVE MINUTES

Help Comes Quickly When Hyomei Is Used for Catarrh, Bronchitis or Cold in the Head.

Quick and effective relief comes from the Hyomei treatment for catarrh and all troubles of the breathing organs such as stopped up head, sniffles, bronchitis, coughs or that choked up feeling—or money refunded. You breathe it.

Hyomei is sold by druggists everywhere, gives a tonic healing effect to the air you breathe, destroys the catarrhal germs, stops the poisonous secretions, soothes the irritated mucous membrane and makes a marked improvement in the general health.

If you suffer from offensive breath, raising of mucus, husky voice, discharge from the nose, droppings in the throat, watery eyes, or any other symptoms of catarrh, use Hyomei at once. It will banish the disease germs in the nose, throat and lungs and give quick and permanent relief.

The complete outfit, including inhaler and bottle of liquid, costs $1; extra bottles of liquid, if later needed, 50c.—Adv.

OLD SOLDIERS WILL HOLD REUNION AT SPRINGFIELD

Survivors of 115th Illinois Among Those Who Will Gather—S. T. Maddox One of Survivors of Battle of Chickamauga.

The annual reunion of the survivors of the 115th Illinois Infantry Volunteers for the year 1913 will be held on Wednesday, October 8, "Soldiers' Day," at the state fair grounds at Springfield. The meeting will be in a tent located directly west of the north wing of the exposition building, the same location as was used last year. The meeting will be opened at 1 o'clock.

As this is the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Chickamauga, it is hoped that some of the comrades who attended the encampment at Chattanooga will be present. The wives, widows, son and daughters of comrades of the 115th are invited to make the tent their resting place during the day.

Deaths Reported.
Since the date of the last reunion the following deaths of members of the regiment have been reported:

Dr. N. G. Blalock, assistant surgeon, Walla Walla, Wash., March, 1913.

Lt. John H. Wood, adjutant, Jacksonville, Ill., 1911.

Lt. E. D. Steen, Co. B, Chicago, Ill., March 22, 1912.

Richard Lee, Co. A, Edinburg, Ill., Nov. 3, 1912.

Tobias Pinkbine, Co. B, Oxford, O., May 19, 1912.

John Dill, Co. C, no date given.

Hugh F. Fry, Co. C, Albion, Ill., March, 1913.

John M. Stark, Co. D, Centralia, Ill., April 5, 1912.

Ira Goodrich, Co. E, Coatesville, Ind., 1912.

Dr. W. F. Linn, Co. F, Herrick, Ill., July 27, 1912.

Geo. W. Kerns, Co. G, Fancher, Ill., 1913.

Roswell Wilcox, Co. H, Burr Oak, Mich., June 2, 1913.

James Elliott, Co. I, Beardstown, Ill., Feb. 7, 1913.

William Boyd, Co. K, Poosland, Ill., 1904.

James T. Roberts, Co. K, Greenville, Ill., Dec. 28, 1912.

G. W. Sumpter, Co. K, Taylor, N. D., Jan. 30, 1913.

Daniel Webster, Co. I, Mercedosa, Ill., Aug. 31, 1912.

P. L. Hayes of Decatur is acting president of the association and A. Litsinberg of the same city is the secretary.

When Capt. James Rutherford was in Jacksonville recently he had a most enjoyable visit with one of the members of his old company, Comrade Samuel T. Maddox, who was with him in the battle of Chickamauga. These two survivors of that battle supported Col. Kinnaman during his dying moments. His death was caused from a wound received in that bloody conflict.

IS JACKSONVILLE SATISFIED?

The Evidence Is Convincing. The Testimony Open to Investigation.

Before a statement can be accepted here, it must be supported by local testimony—by the evidence of some one residing in Jacksonville. Statements from unknown people in remote places may be true, but we cannot prove them. Here is a state Church street, Jacksonville, Ill. says: "All I said a few years ago praising Doan's Kidney Pills holds good. They did me a great deal of good and I advise their use in cases of weak back and other kidney troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills can be procured from Armstrong's Drug Store and are worthy of a trial."

"When Your Back Is Lame—Remedy by a Jacksonville resident: Charles Godfrey, 335 South member the Name." COMMENDS MR. KENNY'S APPOINTMENT.
The Franklin Times recently had the following favorable comment on the appointment of James Kenny, as temporary road superintendent of Morgan county.

The county commissioners have announced the appointment of James Kenny, of the north side, as temporary road superintendent of the county. Mr. Kenny is a good man for the place, having acceptably filled the place of commissioner of highways in Road District No. 9 in past years. He has given much time to the study of the new Tice road law and is one of the best posted men in this section on its provisions. We understand that his name has been suggested for the place of superintendent permanently and his service in that capacity would be of value to the taxpayers of the county.

Mr. Kenny's appointment, though but a temporary one, is very gratifying to residents in this community, as we consider him a Franklin man, he having always voted here and being a member of the local Catholic church.

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM.
George W. Koon, Lawton, Mich., says: "Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began the use of the remedy and improved rapidly. On Monday she could not move and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by L. P. Allcott, druggist.—Adv.

NEWS FROM THE FRONT

Mr. and Mrs. John Devlin have received a letter from their son, John, who is a musician in the Fifth U. S. cavalry, stationed at Fort Huachuca, Ariz., and from it the Journal is kindly permitted to make a few extracts.

September 20, 1913.

Dear Mother: I am well and happy and waiting the time when I shall get my discharge and come home and see you. It will be January 29 and I shall get away at 8 o'clock that evening. It will take me two nights to get to St. Louis and I shall not wait there, but take the first train home.

We just got back from Nogales, a place on the border of Mexico, where they had a hot time for a while, but all is quiet now. We played for the town every night. All are well here and many of the boys are getting discharged and going home. I must say goodbye and go to practice. Tell father the old drummer sends his best. As ever, Jack.

Avoid Sedative Cough Medicines.
If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia, use cough medicines that contain codeine, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed.

That cleans out the culture beds or breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world wide reputation for its cures. It contains no morphine or other sedative. For sale by all dealers. (adv.)

Mrs. Mande Wyatt Miggs, by her attorneys, Bellatti, Barnes & Bellatti, has filed a suit for divorce from her husband, Frank Miggs, whom she charges with desertion. They were married in March, 1907, and lived together until May 17th of the same year.

REMOVAL NOTICE.

Dr. A. R. Gregory has removed his office from East State street to 326 West State street. Phone: Illinois 95, Bell 194.

WHO IS IT?

This is C. N. Priest, the Ford man who has new quarters at 228 South Sandy street, a little way south of the southwest corner of the square. He has a fire proof garage and is admirably equipped to care for the wants of all motorists. He can store machines reasonably and be safe from fire. He has a full line of supplies, gasoline and the like and a force of competent men to do all kinds of repairs on any kind of a machine.

Anything and everything in the way of auto supplies, oils and all else he keeps and can accommodate any one who wants repairs, storage or new parts.

Of course, he sells the Ford machine and invites inspection of his new models. He has a wonderful list of unsolicited testimonials from users of the machine.

COMPARES GIANTS AND ATHLETICS

McGraw Has Best Pitchers;
Mack's Infielders Lead.

THE MATTY-BENDER DUELS.

Fans Everywhere Interested in Clashes Between the Veteran Twirlers—Tommy Clark Says Mack's Infield and Batters Offset the New York Pitchers—Teams Evenly Matched.

By TOMMY CLARK.

The makeup of the two rival teams for the world's championship presents an interesting study.

The Giants have the strongest pitching staff and the best catchers. The Athletics have a far superior infield and one that will nullify much of the Giants' batting.

As to the outfield, the teams are practically even in strength.

If Manager Mack of the Athletics had not lost the services of Jack Coombs through illness I would be frank to state that the Philadelphia's have an advantage over the Giants, because Coombs when in condition is a pitcher of the highest standard of reliability. If Mack had Coombs to back up Bender and Plank the present superiority of the New Yorkers in the hurling department would be nullified.

McInnes Injured.

Then, too, the recent injury to First Baseman McInnes in a contest with the St. Louis Browns has worried Mack. "Stuffy's" right arm was hurt so badly that he was placed under a doctor's care at once.

I look to see a wonderfully close race in the coming series, owing to the even balance of the teams. The superiority of the Giants' pitching department, containing Mathewson, Marquard, Demaree, Fromme and Tesreau, over that of the Quakers and the superiority of Mack's infield over that of the Giants tend to make a standoff. Mack's celebrated $100,000 infield is as follows:

Baker, third base; Barry, shortstop; Collins, second base, and McInnes, first base.

Batting will decide the fate of the series beyond question, and the New Yorkers will find that they need all the good pitching they can get. The Athletics are better batsmen as a team than the disciples of McGraw. However, the Giants "have it on" the Athletics when it comes to base running. Burns, Fletcher, Shafer, Doyle, Merkle, Herzog and Murray are speed demons on the bags, and they have a signal system for use in base running that is very effective.

Two Master Managers.

The strategy of the managers of the rival teams will play a big part in the titanic games. The question as to who is the better field general, McGraw or Mack, is one that has been argued on all sides for years by the fans. The men are of different types, yet both have attained notable success. McGraw is the more aggressive character, and this quality is desirable, but it frequently brings the doughty New York boss into trouble with players and umpires.

Much mystery surrounds the reason why McGraw has been keeping infielder Charley Herzog on the bench most of this year, and the situation leads one to wonder if this great player will be left to warm his heels during the series. His work last year against Boston will long be remembered for its brilliancy, and his present predicament reminds one of the uncertainty of a baseball player's career.

Of course when all is said and done the real feature of the coming contests will be the pitching duels between Mathewson and Bender that are sure to occur.

Every fan in the United States has this subject in mind, and no doubt these celebrated veterans will supply sensations for the spectators that will live long in baseball history.

Matty's performances against the Athletics in 1905 still linger in memory. He twirled three winning games and captured the series.

In 1911, when the same teams met again, the Philadelphia's turned the tables on the Gothamites, Bender and Plank outbarring Matty and the other members of McGraw's strong arm corps.

Mack's Stars Cost Little.

It is interesting to note that Mack goes into the 1913 championship series with one of the greatest of all ball teams, secured for a remarkably small sum of money, while the New Yorkers have paid large sums for their talent. Marquard alone cost the Giants $10,000.

Yet it is safe to say that $1,000 is more than Mack paid for his entire great infield—Baker, Barry, Collins and McInnes—and his three star pitchers—Plank, Bender and Coombs—thrown in for good measure. Mack did not pay a cent for either of the three pitchers named, as he took them all direct from college. Plank came from Gettysburg, Coombs from Colby and Bender from Carleton.

Collins and Barry were other college players who cost Mack nothing but their carfare to Philadelphia. Collins started at Columbia, while Barry is a product of Holy Cross. Mack got hold of McInnes when "Stuffy" was only seventeen years old. He took him off the Gloucester (Mass.) high school team.

COMPARATIVE MERITS OF BACKSTOPS IN NEXT WEEK'S BIG BATTLE

In Batting Strength New York Appears to Have the Call.

New York, Oct. 3.—The catchers of the New York Giants and Philadelphia Athletics will play an important part in the coming battles for the world's championship in baseball, and the managers of the rival clubs are fortunate in having dependable trios for the position behind the plate. Connie Mack has Schang, Lapp and Thomas to use as his judgment dictates and McGraw in Meyers, McLean and Wilson has an opposing squad of catchers which, viewed in a broad manner, suffers little if any when compared with the Philadelphia wearers of mitt and mask.

Meyers and Schang appear to have first call for the position, with McLean and Lapp second choice, and Wilson and Thomas as third string catchers. Meyers and Schang will be called upon to do the brunt of the work, barring illness or accident, and are therefore first to be considered in a comparison of the catching strength of the two clubs. From an offensive standpoint Meyers is the best player of the two, due to his ability as a batter. The big Indian has an unofficial record of 310 for 115 games this season as against 259 for Schang in 75 games. On the bases the Philadelphia backstop is a faster man, but this asset is more or less nullified by the fact that Meyers gets to the initial bag more frequently than his chief rival in the world's series. Both are accurate and fast in throwing to the bases, but the Athletics' youngster has a margin over Meyers in this respect, for he shoots to second with less apparent exertion and more speed than the Chief Tortois.

Lapp has taken the ascendancy over Thomas during the past season and judging from present indications will be Connie Mack's second choice for the stand behind the home plate. He will have a formidable opponent in McLean, who joined the Giants via the trade route from St. Louis after the midseason mark had been passed. As in the case of Meyers and Schang, the Giants' second string catcher has a decided advantage over Lapp in batting, for the records show that the former Cincinnati-St. Louis catcher has a batting average of .285, against Lapp's .219. The figures are all the more impressive since both catchers have worked in about the same number of games. As an offset the Philadelphia catcher has proved to be deadly in throwing base stealers out at second and third and in this respect outranks the veteran who was traded into a world's series pot of gold after his new team mates had secured a commanding lead in the race for the pennant.

Ira Thomas, one of Mack's veterans, in point of experience, at least outranks Wilson easily, but the old adage of youth vs. old age may equalize this should the pair don masks and pads in the same game. Thomas is a catcher who rises to emergencies and as a tactician has few equals. As far as batting is con-

RUBE MARQUARD.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON.

THE chief reliance of Manager Mugsy McGraw of the New York Nationals in the world's series games, opening Oct. 4, will be his two classy twirlers, Christy Mathewson and Rube Marquard.

Matty is feared by the Athletics more than any other pitcher, and it is likely that McGraw will use the celebrated veteran in the first contest. Marquard has been pitching well this year, though not up to his mark of last year, when he won nineteen straight games. Marquard has more than earned the $11,000 purchase money paid to Indianapolis for him a few years ago by John T. Brush, late owner of the New York Nationals.

Matty has been a standby for McGraw most of this season, and he eased up a trifle during recent games to save himself for the world's series.

FOOTBALL BATTALIONS WILL BATTLE TODAY

CENTRAL STATES WILL BEGIN SERIES OF CONFLICTS.

Chief in Interest is the Meeting of the Maroons and the Hoosiers—Game Will Form Part of Dedication Exercises of Chicago's New Stadium.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Football battalions of the central states swing into battle lines tomorrow in a series of conflicts which signalize among other things the opening of the campaign for the conference championship. Chief in interest is the first clash of two "Big Nine" eleven, Chicago meeting Indiana in a game that carries extra importance because of the unusual strength the Hoosiers showed last Saturday in their routing of DePauw. The Maroons and Indiana on paper, resemble each other so closely as to make their chances appear about even. Each eleven includes what critics call a strong backfield and a comparatively weak line and each has had the same general instruction, since "Jimmy" L. Holden, coach of the Hoosiers won his football degree under A. A. Stagg, tutor of the science on the midway. The game will be a leading feature of the ceremonies incident to dedication of Chicago's new stadium. Two thousand or more Indiana alumni and students are expected to attend.

Out side the conference Michigan's opening game with Case is attracting most general attention because of the hint it is expected to give Cornell and Pennsylvania an idea of the strength of the Ann Arbor corps.

Minnesota should have little trouble with Ames, if reports of a crippled team at the latter institution are true. Wisconsin's game with Lawrence is regarded as a practice contest.

Notre Dame, later to meet several eastern eleven including the army will have a fair try-out in its game with Ohio Northern.

Among tomorrow's contests, are: Indiana vs. Chicago, at Chicago. Case vs. Michigan, at Ann Arbor. Washburn vs. Purdue, at LaFayette. Washburn vs. Nebraska, at Lincoln.

Ohio Wesleyan vs. Ohio State, at Columbus. Iowa Normal vs. Iowa State, at Iowa City.

Lake Forest vs. Northwestern, at Evanston. Ohio Northern vs. Notre Dame, at Notre Dame.

Kentucky State vs. Illinois, at Urbana. Mount Union vs. Western Reserve, at Cleveland.

Ames vs. Minnesota at Minneapolis. Drury vs. Missouri, at Columbia. Nebraska Wesleyan vs. South Dakota at Vermillion.

Lawrence vs. Wisconsin at Madison.

Strenuous Games in the East.
New York, Oct. 3.—Football games on a more strenuous character than heretofore mark the opening of October gridiron schedules in various parts of the country. Several of the larger eastern university eleven tomorrow will face opponents with recorded victories in 1912.

The day will also mark the introduction of several eastern and mid-western teams into the football arena. In the east the games to be played by Pennsylvania against Lafayette and Cornell against Oberlin will be watched with unusual interest both the Quakers and the Ithaca eleven face colleges which last year scored decisive victories over them.

In other respects the schedule of Eastern games contains little that is out of the ordinary. Among the eastern games tomorrow are:

University of Pittsburgh at Annapolis (Navy). Stevens Institute at West Point (Army).

Fordham at Princeton. Carlisle at Lehigh. Hamilton at Syracuse.

Villa Nova at Swarthmore. Colby at Dartmouth. Rhode Island State at Brown.

May Resume Athletic Relations.
Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 3.—It is generally believed on the campus tonight that the University of Michigan would soon resume athletic relations with Minnesota and possibly with other large western universities. The resolutions which were drafted several weeks ago and sent to the Minnesota authorities are believed here to be a half way step toward the settlement of the matters which caused a breach between the two institutions.

SENATORS AND RED SOX SPLIT EVEN IN DOUBLE HEADER

Washington Clinches Second Place and Boston Fourth in American League Race.

Washington, Oct. 3.—By breaking even in their double header here today Washington clinched second place and Boston fourth in the American league race. The Red Sox took the first game 2 to 0, mainly through the airtight pitching of Leonard, who held the locals to two hits. Shaw, a Washington recruit from York, Pa., was hit hard. The second game became a farce before it was half finished and in favor of Washington 11 to 3.

UNLUCKY DAY FOR CHAMPION ATHLETICS

ATHLETICS AND YANKEES SPLIT EVEN IN DOUBLE HEADER.

First Substitute Infielder Orr Breaks Right Hand When He Touches Hartzel Who Attempts to Steal—Spikes Fracture Bones.

Philadelphia, Oct. 3.—This was an unfortunate day for the Philadelphia champions, unfortunate, because the weather was too cold and blustery for their pitchers to get a good tuning up for the world's series and unfortunate because Orr, the first substitute infielder, had his right hand broken. Philadelphia won the first game by 13 to 10 and New York the second, which was called on account of darkness at the end of the sixth inning by 2 to 1.

Orr's injury was received in the second game, when he touched out Hartzel, who tried to steal third base in the fourth inning.

Hartzel's spikes were driven into Orr's hand and one of the bones fractured. This was the second accident of the series with New York, Catcher Schang having had his hand hurt by a foul tip yesterday, but the injury is not thought to be serious. Scores:

PROVISIONS OF NEW TARIFF BILL

Measure Is Expected to Yield
Large Revenue.

RATES LOWERED BY SENATE

As Prepared by the House the Average Duties Were About 30 Per Cent and as Finally Adopted the Average Is About 27 Per Cent—The Payne-Aldrich Bill Carried Average Duties of 35 Per Cent—Free List Is Increased.

PROGRESS OF THE NEW TARIFF BILL.

The following shows the chronological history of the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill:

Jan. 6 to Feb. 1—Hearings, house ways and means committee.

April 7—Bill introduced by Mr. Underwood and referred to the ways and means committee.

April 22—Bill reported by Mr. Underwood after Democratic caucus had approved it.

May 8—Passed house of representatives—yeas, 201; nays, 133.

May 9—Received by the senate and referred to finance committee.

June 20—Bill completed by senate finance committee and referred to Democratic caucus.

July 11—Bill reported to senate by Chairman Simmons with recommendation that it pass.

July 21—Made unfinished business of senate.

Sept. 9—Passed by senate—yeas, 44; nays, 37.

Sept. 11—House nonconcur in senate amendments, and bill goes to conference.

Sept. 26—Conference reach final adjustment.

After being under consideration in congress for nearly six months the new tariff bill is a law, and for the first time in nearly a quarter of a century the country has a tariff law originated by the Democratic party. The bill will doubtless be known as the Underwood-Simmons bill, taking the title from Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee of the house and Chairman Simmons of the finance committee of the senate.

The sponsors for the bill say that it will raise ample revenue. Chairman Simmons has been advised that it will yield a surplus of at least $16,000,000 a year above current expenses. If it does not meet the expenses of running the government the expenses will be reduced.

One remarkable thing about the present tariff bill, a precedent, in fact, is that the senate cut the average rate of duty carried by the bill below that fixed by the house. Heretofore in the making of a tariff bill the house has slashed the rates, while the senate has then taken up the bill and readjusted the rates on a higher general average.

The house bill carried a general average rate slightly below 30 per cent. This the senate cut a little over 4 per cent. The conference committee has raised the general average duty but slightly. The average ad valorem duty carried by the bill as perfected is about 27 per cent. The average under the present law is about 35 per cent.

Many Changes Considered.

The conference committee had to deal with 676 paragraphs on which there were disagreements. Some of these involved only the change of a word or a question of punctuation, but a majority of them represented differences in rates and a few were fundamental.

The house conferees also accepted the senate amendment fixing dates when the wool duties shall go into effect, which was one of the final stumbling blocks.

Raw wool will go on the free list on Dec. 1, and the reduced duties carried by the present bill will become effective on Jan. 1. The house bill proposed to make the wool duties effective immediately on the bill being signed by the president. The final action was an important concession to the manufacturers.

The senate won over the house also on controverted paragraphs in the schedule relating to cotton cloths and yarns. By this agreement slightly higher duties are given to certain coarser grades of cotton cloths and yarns by changing the classification.

Fur hats and frames, forms and other parts for the manufacture of such hats received a rate of 45 per cent. This matter affects the hat industry in Connecticut. The house fixed the rate at 40 per cent, the senate made it 45.

The silk schedule also was reopened, and the rate on silk partially manufactured from cocoons or wastes, not further advanced in manufacture than carded or combed silk, and silk noils, was reduced from 30 to 20 cents per pound.

The Metal Schedule.

Probably no single industry covered by the tariff bill suffered such reductions in duties as did the iron and steel industry. The house cut duties unsparingly, and then the senate followed by making still further reductions and increasing the free list.

The house, for example, placed a duty of 8 per cent on pig iron, spiegeisen, scrap iron and scrap steel and like products and made ferro-manganese dutiable at 15 per cent. The senate free listed both of them, and the conference committee after a considerable deadlock yielded to the senate.

The senate also free listed slabs, blooms, loops and other products of iron more advanced than pig iron, which the house had made dutiable at 8 per cent. The conference agreed to this. The senate cut the duty on round iron or steel wire from 20 per cent in the house bill to 15 per cent, and the conference accepted the senate reduction.

Agricultural Schedule.

The conference committee agreed to the senate amendment, which struck out the 10 per cent duty on cattle provided by the house bill and the 10 per cent rate on sheep and transferring both to the free list. The conference committee also put wheat on the free list, where the senate had placed it, by striking out a duty of 10 cents a bushel provided by the house bill.

The house won a victory in the duty on lemons and other citrus fruit when the conference committee restored the classification based on the cubic feet of the containers in which such products are imported, which results in a slight decrease of the duty.

The senate also lost in the struggle over a proposed duty on bananas when the conference committee struck out the senate rate and restored bananas to the free list of the house bill.

Very few changes were made in the woolen schedule. The senate was sustained by the conference committee in its amendments fixing the dates when wool duties shall go into effect. Compromises were made by the conference committee between senate and house rates, by which wool tops will bear a duty of 10 per cent and yarns a duty of 18 per cent.

The senate sought to reduce the duty on woolen blankets and to free list blankets valued at not more than 40 cents a pound, but the conference committee rejected the amendment, and all blankets will bear duty at 25 per cent ad valorem. The house rates of 50 per cent ad valorem on carpets and rugs were adopted by the conference.

A compromise was reached on the paragraphs relating to angora goat hair, alpaca, by which the hair will pay a duty of 15 per cent; tops from such hair, 25 per cent, and plushes, velvet and other fabrics, 45 per cent.

Sundries.

The conference committee adopted the action of the senate, placing fulminates and gunpowder on the free list. There was a compromise on the paragraph relating to furs, but generally the house rates were restored.

The senate rates prevailed as to lace curtains and laces and the house won by having restored the paragraph in the house bill covering chamois skins and glove leathers, by which the former were made dutiable at 15 per cent, and the latter at 10 per cent. There was a compromise on the glove schedule between senate and house rates and the senate's action in free listing harness, saddles and saddlery parts was approved by the conference committee, although the house bill had made them dutiable at 20 per cent.

The only substantial victory won by the house in the free list was as to free art.

Here are rates of the new tariff compared with the Payne-Aldrich law:

A STRONG REFERENCE.
A young man recently applied for a position with a large printing house, and not having a letter of reference, offered his bank book. It showed a regularity of entries of deposit. It was a very strong recommendation, indicating character and persistence, which finally secured for him a good position.

THE WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

STOCKS ARE UNDER STEADY PRESSURE

PREVIOUS FIRM TONE OF THE MARKET DISAPPEARS.

Traders Pursue Conservative Course on Eve of Fundamental Change in Tariff Laws—Weakness of Steel is Drag on the Whole Market.

(By Associated Press)
New York, Oct. 3.—Stocks were under steady pressure today. The firm tone of the previous two days disappeared and although offerings were not heavy there was no demand except at concession. Leading issues ended the day with losses of a point or more.

On the eve of a fundamental change in the country's tariff laws traders thought it best to pursue a conservative course. Uncertainty as to the action of the market in the immediate future led holders of long stock to realize on the comparative small rise of the preceding two days.

Steel was once more the most conspicuous stock and its persistent weakness was a drag on the whole market. Copper shares yielded part of their recent exceptional gain.

Reading and Union Pacific also were subjected to severe pressure at times. St. Paul was affected adversely by its August report, showing a decrease of more than $1,000, 000 in net earnings.

GIRLS WHO ARE PALE, NERVOUS

May Find Help in Mrs. Elston's Letter About Her Daughter.

Burlington, Iowa.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured my daughter of weakness. She was troubled almost a year with it and complained of backache, so that I thought she would be an invalid. She was entirely run down, pale, nervous and without appetite. I was very much discouraged but heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound through friends and now I praise it because it has cured my daughter."—Mrs. F. M. ELSTON, R. D. No. 3, Burlington, Iowa.

Case of Another Girl.
Scanlon, Minn.—"I used to be bothered with nervous spells, and would cry if anyone was cross to me. I got awful weak spells especially in the morning, and my appetite was poor. I also had a tender place in my right side which pained when I did any hard work. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my symptoms all changed, and I am certainly feeling fine. I recommend it to every suffering woman or girl. You may use this letter for the good of others."—Miss ELLA OLSON, 171 5th St., Virginia, Minn.

Young Girls, Heed This Advice.
Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

BUSINESS MAKES GOOD PROGRESS

CONSENSUS IS THAT TRADE IS AHEAD OF THIS TIME LAST YEAR.

Immediate Developments in Business Are Attributed to the Advance of the Season and the Stimulating Influences of Crop Money.

New York, Oct. 3.—Bradstreet's will say tomorrow:

Improved collections, easier money and enlarged distributive trade are prominent features in this week's reports. Wearing apparel reflects most activity and returns indicate that requests for prompt shipment are general suggestion that stocks are still light.

Moreover the consensus is that trade is ahead of this time last year, when a considerable degree of progress was noted.

It is true that far future business in subordinated to immediate wants, but the former also appears to be growing. Immediate developments may be attributed to the advance of the season and to the fact that the stimulating influences of crop money are being felt.

Withal there is sufficient slowness in a number of lines and in parts of the country to divert the situation of absolute uniformity.

Business failures for the week were 236, which compares with 268 in 1912.

Dun's Weekly Review.

New York, Oct. 3.—Dun's Review will say tomorrow:

Business in most departments continues to make satisfactory progress, one notable feature being the increasing disposition of merchants in numerous lines and widely separated parts of the country to anticipate future requirements.

Some uncertainty has been expressed as to conditions in sections of the south where the cotton crop is reported to have been adversely affected, but the high prices at which the staple is now selling have removed apprehension, for merchants generally throughout the best placing orders for necessities with greater freedom than a year ago. Similar conditions prevail in districts where crops suffered from the drought.

In the east, where commercial and industrial operations have been retarded by tariff uncertainty, the final settlement has encouraged merchants and manufacturers and operations are on a steadily broadening scale.

BANK CLEARINGS.

FEEL YOUNG!

It's Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets For You!

Beware of the habit of constipation. It develops from just a few constipated days, unless you take yourself in hand.

Coax the faded bowel muscles back to normal action with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Don't force them to unnatural action with severe medicines or by merely flushing out the intestines with nasty, sickening cathartics.

Dr. Edwards believes in gentleness, persistency and Nature's assistance.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets open the bowels; their action is gentle, yet positive. There is never any pain or griping when Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are used. Just the kind of treatment old persons should have.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two occasionally and have no trouble with your liver, bowels or stomach. 10c and 5c per box. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.—Adv.

HOLDS PUBLIC SALE.

G. W. Gilbert held a public sale at his farm west of the city Friday, disposing of his stock and farming implements preparatory to moving to Colorado Springs, Colo., for the benefit of his health. He expects to leave next Thursday. The sale was attended by a good crowd of bidders and totaled $1,110.05. Horses brought from $60 to $70, one cow sold for $76, shoats averaging 100 pounds sold for $9 per head and farming implements brought rather low prices. Charles Taylor was the auctioneer and R. R. Stevenson was the clerk.

GIVES QUILTING PARTY.

Mrs. Ernest Strawn gave a quilting party at her home in Alexander Friday at which about 20 ladies were present. At noon an elaborate dinner was served and all enjoyed a delightful time.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Robert Livolsy, third track operator at Concord was here yesterday to visit his wife who is a patient at Passavant hospital. Mrs. Livolsy is improving in a gratifying manner.

Mr. Emmerson, engineer in the employ of the Burlington for some time, has resigned his position and has entered the service of the Northwestern with headquarters at Pekin. James Mann, division freight agent of the Alton, with headquarters at Springfield was in the local offices yesterday.

William Shields, time keeper for Mr. Heffern, superintendent of maintenance, has been transferred along with Mr. Heffern to Bloomington for the future.

J. Didot, C. P. & St. L. roadmaster with office at Springfield, visited the local forces yesterday.

C. P. & St. L. combination car No. 32 has been sent to Springfield for service during the state fair and No. 28 has taken its place.

From October 6 to 10 inclusive the afternoon train north on the C. P. & St. L. will leave Jacksonville at 4:40 instead of 3:10, the regular time.

Miss Esther Peterson, residing at Virginia and sister of A. E. Peterson, local agent of the C. P. & St. L., is visiting Miss Anna Bergsneider on South Diamond street.

Ira Little, yard man at the Wash, was walking by a coal car which was being unloaded when a diver of coal struck him in his right eye causing a painful wound. He received medical attention and thinks he will not lose sight of the member though it is badly hurt.

The many passenger trains on the Wash during fair time caused other trains to be late and the yards at Springfield to be congested, so that agent Simpson says Jacksonville people have to be a little patient with dilatory service which cannot be avoided during fair time.

At the Car Shops.
Numbers 26, 27 and 57 have been admitted to the roundhouse for the beginning of their overhauling and they are all the engines in that building at present but there are eight tenders on the tracks in the structure.

In the machine shop there are four dismantled engines and they show not much more than shells at present but just wait.

John Devlin in the machine shop has had a variety of experiences, type setter or compositor for years and a good one and then for some time deputy county clerk under John Williams years ago. He is good for a long time yet and has a pleasant smile for all whom he meets.

Numbers 51 and 61 are waiting on the side track for their turn to get in out of the cold.

In the machine shop numbers 41, 45 and 58 are being overhauled and another is being built anew and has not been numbered yet. They were taking the drivers from under 58 yesterday morning.

In the blacksmith shop is the shell of number 24 and it look rather sorry. It will get its new tubes there and soon go to other parts and in due time sent out as good as new.

Number 23 has been sent to Springfield all renovated and will enter the passenger service.

Number 46 has been made over and sent to Alton for duty in the freight service.

Number 27 has just been brought in for overhauling.

There are in the yards in this place and other 150 condemned box cars which will not be used any more and dismantled and disposed of to the best advantage possible. They are hardly worth making over and they fail to meet the requirements for safety and are too old to justify work on them.

The C. P. & St. L. road has recently bought and placed in service 400 fine new box cars of 40 tons capacity and 400 steel coal cars of 50 tons capacity.

Evangelist Rees and helpers held a meeting at the noon hour Friday and it was well attended, the men giving respectful attention to all that was said to them.

Supt. Ingrud has decided to close down for a day in order to let the employees of the shops attend the fair if they wish. Heretofore they have gone a few each day which has badly disarranged things and now it is his intention to shut down a day for them. They met yesterday to discuss the matter and today a committee will wait on Mr. Ingrud to settle on the day. A very kindly feeling exists between the superintendent and the men and it is for the welfare of the company that it is the case.

Knives' light overcoats are just right for fall weather.

HOLD RECEPTION FOR PASTOR.

The members of the Murrayville Methodist church held a reception for their new pastor, Rev. C. S. McCollum Friday evening in the basement of the church which was attended by a large number. A very pleasant evening was spent and refreshments were served.

ARE YOU GOING TO THE FAIR?

And How Are You Intending to Go?

By railroad train and stand up all the way? Or do you want to ride on a soft cushion with your friends and family in a nice automobile? If that is the case hasten to make your date with C. N. Priest, the Ford man, who will take you to the fair and bring you back at reasonable prices. This is the sensible way to go. Remember the place, 228 South Sandy street, the new garage, a little way south of the southwest corner of the square.

SOUTH SIDE CIRCLE MEETS.

The South Side Circle held its second meeting of the season Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. W. Sperry at her residence on Rount street. The meeting was attended by a large number of members and Mrs. W. W. Gilbeau, presented a paper on "Aerial Navigation" and Mrs. W. T. Reaugh had for her subject "Wireless Telegraphy." The program proved unusually interesting and after the roll call a social hour was enjoyed when refreshments were served.

TERRIBLE ITCHING OF SKIN TROUBLE

Small Red and Yellow Spots on Leg. Covered with Dry Scale. Had to Walk Floor Nights. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured.

R. F. D. No. 3, Clarkfield, Minn.—"My trouble was of long standing. It started with some small red and yellow spots about the size of a pin head on my leg and every morning there was a dry scale on top covering the affected part and when those scales were falling off the itching was more than I could stand at times. The first year I did not mind it so much as it was only itching very badly at times, but the second year it advanced all around my leg and the itching was terrible. I had to be very careful to have my clothing around the affected part very loose. At night time I often happened to scratch this sore in my sleep. Then I had to stand up, get out of bed and walk the floor."

"Then I read the advertisement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I wrote for a sample and got it. To my surprise I was feeling relief after the second application. So I got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a fifty-cent box of Cuticura Ointment and when I had used them I was nearly over the itching, so I got another box and that healed it all up so it looked smooth and fine, but I kept on with the Cuticura Soap for six weeks and the cure was complete." (Signed) S. O. Gordon, Nov. 20, 1912.

Cuticura Soap 25c. and Cuticura Ointment 50c. are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T. Boston." Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

OTTO SPIETH PURCHASES
THE DR. BLACK PROPERTY

East State Residence and Office Building Will be Turned Into Art Studio—Occupied by Drs. G. V. and Carl E. Black For Nearly Half Century.

A contract has been executed whereby Otto Spieth will soon be the owner of Dr. C. E. Black's property on East State street. Mr. Spieth's home on Diamond Court will be given as a part of the purchase price of his new acquisition. Possession is to be given within a few weeks and Mr. Spieth will at once make certain changes and will use all of the lower floors for studio purposes and will have his living rooms in the second story.

It has been Mr. Spieth's wish to have a ground floor studio for some time and he decided upon the Black property as exactly meeting his requirements. He believes East State is a good business street now and that it will continue to improve. While the new studio will be extensive it is Mr. Spieth's intention to continue to conduct a studio in his present quarters.

The property which Dr. Black will transfer, while it is in excellent condition, is one of the old residences of Jacksonville. It was built originally by William Branson, an early citizen, and additions were made from time to time. Dr. G. V. Black and Dr. Carl E. Black have occupied the property for nearly forty-eight years.

FOOTBALL SEASON
OPENS HERE TODAY

JACKSONVILLE AND ALTON HIGH WILL BE OPPONENTS.

Hotly Contested Game Expected This Afternoon in Illinois Field When Fast Altonites Comes For Initial Performance—Illinois vs. I. S. D., Second Game.

Forty-six 39-18-77—they are off. Today opens the football season in Jacksonville, when the Alton High school meets the J. H. S. men, on Illinois field at 1:30. Following in the wake of a most enthusiastic mass meeting at the high school yesterday afternoon, when speeches were made by representatives of the four classes and others, a crowd of rooters has gotten together, which ought to inject enough ginger into almost any team to win a victory. The speakers were Byron Carpenter, Esther Davis, Dale Boxell and Harlan Williamson. Supt. Gore was called in and made a spirited talk, after all the football men had been lined up on the platform. Yells were practiced with William Alcott and Rollin Keil as leaders.

Just what J. H. S. will do with Alton, or vice versa, is a question. The old saying that the future can be judged from the past is not always true in football for the complexion of a team can be changed in a season. Alton's record last year is splendid and the dope shows that they played East St. Louis, Western Military Academy, Carrollton, Loyola hall, Bunker Hill Military Academy, Kirkwood H. S., Nebraska City Military Academy, Nebraska Farm school and defeated their opponents in every contest except one with East St. Louis, the first game, which resulted in a tie.

Coach Buland has had his men in hard practice and their work will be watched with interest this afternoon. In Killbuck, J. H. S. has a fullback who can buck the line like a college man. Haigh, Herring, Reynolds, Berryman and Sutherland should all give a good account of themselves. Of course a great deal of the material is new and it will take a regular contest or two to see if the right man is in the right place. The game will be called at 1:30 in order to give the team a chance to catch the afternoon Alton train home.

Coach Buland has announced the following line-up: Berryman, c; L. Williamson, rg; Dickson and H. Williamson, lg; Strawn, lt; L. A. Wood, rt; Leona Wood, re; Herring, le; Reynolds, qb; Sutherland, of; Spears, rb; Killbuck, fb; Haigh or Whitlock, lb; Pyatt, sub, q.

Illinois vs. I. S. D.
Following the game between Jacksonville and Alton, Illinois college and the State School for the Deaf will play. Football has been revived again in earnest at the Deaf school and the boys have been practicing hard. On account of the green material Capt. Peard has had a big job on his hands getting the team adjusted and while he makes no prophecy, he believes his men will show up well. The scrimmage will give Coach Harmon an opportunity to get a line on his men. He hasn't a large assortment of plays, but expects to make good use of what he has.

The line-up of the teams follow:
Illinois—Alford (Capt.), lb; Pierce, re; Wilson, rb; McLaughlin, le; Stewart, qb; Frisbie, rt; Mitchell, fb; Maxey, c; Barragh, rb; Russell, lt; Lukeman, lg.
I. S. D.—Friday, lb; Peard (Capt.), re; Burns, rb; Grimmer, le; Cleys, qb; Taylor, rt; Miller, fb; Lingle, c; Smith, rg; Eskew, lt; Gedney, lg. Subs., Newton, Stebelton, Gildersleeve, Dalbow and Kissel.

CONGREGATIONAL BROTHERHOOD HELD MEETING FRIDAY.

Duck Supper Followed by Discussion of New Suffrage Law.

The Congregational Brotherhood held the first meeting of the fall season Friday night when a large representation of the membership gathered for a duck supper and a program afterward. E. B. Spink and C. H. Smith formed the committee of arrangements and Mr. Spink, who is something of a nimrod, provided the wild ducks for the occasion. Following the excellent supper L. R. Penfield, the chairman, introduced Frank J. Heintz, who discussed the Illinois Equal Suffrage law. Ladies had been invited to give part of the evening's program and they found the discussion very interesting. An opportunity was given for asking questions and in this way a number of matters about which some women have been in doubt were cleared up.

"Years of Experience Have Proven to Me That the MAJESTIC Range IS the Best"

"Strange, that for years, I couldn't see that trying to get good work from an old, worn-out range, merely to save the price of a new one, was not true economy. My Great Majestic has more than earned its cost in the saving of fuel alone, because the open seams and joints in my old, worn-out range where the bolts were loose and the putty had crumbled away, made me burn twice as much fuel as necessary.

"Talk about luck in baking—"luck" is nothing but good oven and my Majestic oven is simply perfect. I can depend on it absolutely every day. I believe father and the children are happier and I know we have better meals at less expense with my Majestic."

Don't Buy Any Range Sight Unseen

Buying a range isn't an every day transaction. To be absolutely sure of complete satisfaction—don't buy from printed descriptions—see the Great Majestic (dealer in nearly every county in 40 states) compare it point for point with any other range. Then you can buy intelligently and be sure of a range that will last a lifetime—the

Great Majestic
Malleable and Charcoal Iron Range

A Perfect Baker—A Fuel Saver
Outwears Three Ordinary Ranges

ONLY range made of malleable iron and charcoal iron. Charcoal iron WON'T RUST LIKE STEEL—malleable iron can't break. Put together with rivets—joints always absolutely tight. Body lined with pure asbestos board, covered with iron grate—you can see it—insuring a dependable baking heat with half the fuel required in ordinary ranges.

All Copper Movable Reservoir—Other Exclusive Features
Reservoir in direct contact with fire, heats through copper pocket pre-warmed from one piece—exclusive patented feature. Oven thermometer—accurate all the time. All doors drop down and form rigid shelves. Open end ash pan—ventilated ash pit—ash cup.

Contains Greatest Improvement Ever Put in a Range
Increasing strength and wear of a Great Majestic more than 200% at a point where other ranges are weakest. Ask about it. Best range at any price. We can furnish any size or style with or without legs. Come in and let us show them to you.

A DWARF CORNSTALK

In the window at Farrell & Co.'s bank is a corn stalk just eighteen inches high. It is tasseled out and has a tiny ear on the diminutive stalk. In every way it resembles a normal and developed corn plant save that it is dwarfed. The stalk was taken from a field of A. M. Masters near Murrayville and while the rest of the big field has an average crop the theory is that this plant grew from a grain which received no moisture at all during the growing season.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME OF JOS. VIEIRA THIS MORNING

TWO MEN THOUGHT TO HAVE BURNED ARE LATER LOCATED

Flames Were Discovered About 12:30 O'clock This Morning When Firemen Were Given Alarm—House a Total Loss.

Fire of an unknown origin destroyed the residence of Joseph Vieira, 761 West Freedman street, this (Saturday) morning about 12:30 o'clock. The two men who were living in the house were at first thought to have perished in the flames, but they were later located near the house.

The house was tenanted by Joseph Vieira, owner of the house, and his brother-in-law, Mrs. Vieira and two of her children having gone back to Madeira about a month ago on account of her health. Mr. Vieira was awakened by the fire and at once went to work in an effort to save some of the furnishings. A daughter of J. A. Smith, who resides just across the street, gave the alarm to the fire department about 12:30 o'clock, but even at that time the roof of the building was falling in and the whole house was a mass of flames. The firemen made a quick run to the fire and stretched a line of hose from the Diamond street plug, having a stream of water on the flames in a few minutes.

When the neighbors reached the scene of the fire they could see nothing of the residents of the place and a report was circulated that the two men were thought to have been burned. One of the neighbors, however, noticed one of the men near the house and it was soon discovered that they were close by, the brother-in-law caring for Mr. Vieira, who is ill. Mr. Vieira went to the residence of his brother on West Railroad street for the night.

The house, which was a small three room structure was a total loss and it is understood that it was partially insured.

ATTEMPTS TO CONCEAL DOUBLE MURDER BY BURNING HOUSE

Examination of Bodies of Mrs. Ford and Daughter Show Skulls of Both Are Crushed.

Meadow, S. D., Oct. 3.—Mrs. Ford and her 11 year old daughter were murdered near here Wednesday and to conceal the crime the murderer set fire to their house, which was completely destroyed. The fact that the woman and her daughter were murdered was not discovered until today, the discovery being made by Deputy Sheriff Martin Ellofson, State's Attorney Stanley and Dr. Walker of Bison who investigated.

An examination of the bodies disclosed two bullet holes in the elder woman's head, while the skulls of both had been crushed. A man known locally as "Nigger" Joe, was arrested today and is held on suspicion.

THROW DYNAMITE BOMBS.
Butler, Colo., Oct. 6.—Six dynamite bombs were thrown into the stockade surrounding the Mitchell Mine company's property near LaFayette at 11 o'clock tonight. The bombs struck the rear of a company boarding house, demolishing it. Twenty-five men were asleep in the house at the time, but all escaped without injury. Immediately following 500 shots were fired from fires to the company camp but with no effect.

MAY MANAGE INDIANAPOLIS.
Denver, Colo., Oct. 3.—It was announced here tonight that Jack Hendricks would assume the management of the Indianapolis team of the American association acquired today by J. C. McGill and others. Mr. McGill still retains ownership of the Denver team, though negotiations are pending for its purchase by Ed Smith of Chicago.

PROMINENT LAWYER DIES.
Glenridge, N. J., Oct. 3.—Harlem Page Lloyd, who for many years was a law partner of William H. Taft in Cincinnati, died here today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Rufus B. Cowing, Jr. Prior to his law connection with the former president, he was associated with Mr. Taft's father, Mr. Lloyd was 75 years old.

STEEL WORKER KILLED.
Peoria, Ill., Oct. 3.—Herman Kjellberg, a steel worker, today fell from a beam on the seventh floor of the Schipper & Block building to the pavement below, alighting on his feet. His legs were driven nearly to his shoulders. He was taken to the hospital and died at midnight.

AMBASSADOR ARRIVES.
Rome, Oct. 3.—Thomas Nelson Page, the new United States ambassador to Italy, and Mrs. Page arrived here today. They were met at the station by the staffs of the embassy and the consulate and a large number of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Page went to the hotel Regina where they occupy the royal apartment.

ATTEMPTS TO SAVE WIFE.
Oshkosh, Wis., Oct. 3.—J. L. Puestow, a traveling man, was probably fatally burned tonight in a futile effort to save his wife from death in their blazing summer home at Oakwood near here. Mrs. Puestow's body was unrecognizable when taken from the ruins. The husband was trying to chop into a closet where his wife was imprisoned when his clothes caught fire.

COMPROMISE VS. PRINCIPLE SERMON THEME TO STUDENTS

Dr. Rees Draws Vital Lessons From Daniel in Stirring Address Entitled "Four College Chums."

"Compromise, not principle, weakens; principle, not compromise strengthens" were the propositions laid down by Dr. Milton S. Rees Friday evening in a strong address to students entitled, "Four College Chums." Using for illustration the story of the young Daniel and his Hebrew companions in training, who chose to withstand the temptations of the Babylonian court and came out of the royal college strong and unscathed, the pastor set forth with clearness and force the conflict between compromise and principle, moral courage and spiritual cowardice and contrasted the worldly Christian policy with the fiery loyalty to principle. "Be loyal to principle. If the way to victory leads through the fiery furnace of trial, God help us to be true."

"If Daniel and his companions had not stood firm against the enticing luxuries of the oriental court, they would never have excelled all the youth of the realm nor have been worthy of promotion to high positions of power and trust. They stood firm at the first. That student is lost who says, 'I will not unfurl my flag for a time; I will not show where I stand until after the Christmas vacation.' Those Christians are of little worth who fail to show their colors who lack the backbone to stand for their belief and choose their church home by standards, convenience, wealth or social station. If the young man and the young woman stand firm for the right at the beginning of their career, they will stand firm for the Christ to the end of their life."

"Adherence to principle leads to promotion. Although beset with all the allurements of the greatest city of the ancient world, Daniel and his college companions dared to stand alone and were promoted to high positions before the eyes of the King. 'Be thou faithful, be thou true unto death, and I will give unto thee a crown of life.'"

"Adherence to principle brings glory to God. It has brought us our John Knox, our Martin Luthers and our Savonarolas. God takes care of his own, if you serve him he will deliver thee. Will you not accept him and take him as your own?"

At the close of the sermon, Dr. Rees announced the meeting in Central park at 3 o'clock today and the third Sunday afternoon mass meeting for men, when he will speak on "Reasons Why Men Are Not Christians." Sunday evening at 7 p. m. will begin the first general service of the fourth week of the union revival.

MORTUARY

Moxon.

Mrs. Mayme Moxon, wife of Walter Moxon, passed away at her home in Springfield Friday morning at 6:30. Her death was caused by typhoid fever, from which she had suffered but a week.

Mrs. Moxon had many friends in this city to whom the news of her sudden passing away will come as a surprise and a shock. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and was esteemed for her genial disposition and christian character by all who knew her.

Miss Mayme Arenz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Arenz, then of Jacksonville, was born Sept. 29, 1884. She moved with her parents to Springfield about three years ago and was united in marriage in 1911 to Walter Moxon. Besides her parents and husband, she is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Horace A. Coleman of Palmyra, Mrs. Eleanor Hussey of Springfield and Mrs. Frank Ledford of Hardin avenue, Jacksonville, and Mrs. William Hayden of Peoria.

The funeral will be held from the family residence, 835 South Douglas street, Springfield, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The service will be in charge of the Rev. Newton Rutledge, an uncle of the deceased, and interment will be made in Oakridge cemetery.

Bristow.

Fayette Bristow, aged 64 years, died Thursday evening at 9 o'clock at Dr. J. A. Day's hospital. Yachere he had been a patient three weeks, death being due to paralysis. Mr. Bristow was twice married and from his first marriage two children survive, Miss Besie Bristow of Palmyra and Ohmer Bristow of Kansas. His second wife survives and one son Ray. For a number of years Mr. Bristow resided in Waverly. The body was cared for at the Williamson & Cody undertaking parlors. Burial will be made at 1 o'clock this afternoon at Palmyra.
